

Livingston Vicariate Newsletter

September, 2017

Welcome to our Livingston Vicariate...

Rev. Daniel Kogut—St. Mary, Pinckney

Rev. Mathias Thelen—St. Patrick, Brighton

Newly ordained Rev. Joseph Campbell—St. Patrick

We are blessed to belong to a vicariate where all eight parishes work together to serve the spiritual, physical and emotional needs of all our members and the communities we call home. Our pastors, deacons, directors of religious education, and youth ministers meet regularly to share ideas and plan ways to spread our Catholic faith by leading others into deeper relationship with Jesus Christ. We are the only vicariate in our diocese to convene a Vicariate Council and to have each parish work intimately with Livingston County Catholic Charities. In addition, our pastors have come together to hire a coordinator of Young Adult Ministry to help grow the active participation of young adults beyond high school and into their 20s and 30s. As you look over this issue of our quarterly newsletter, you will see many ways to grow in your faith and join with other Livingston Catholics for fellowship.

Wishing you all a blessed Fall!
